

NORTHGATE MUTUAL - CONSOLIDATED CLAIM FILE

Claim number NG-2026-004417
Policy number NAP-88213-06
Date of loss 2026-01-19
Insured Harriet Okonjo-Vale
Total claimed 48,215.60

This file consolidates the first notice of loss, the adjuster's inspection record, third-party repair estimates and all correspondence to date.

SECTION 1 - FIRST NOTICE OF LOSS

Reported by the insured by telephone at 08:42 on the date of loss. Vehicle struck from the rear while stationary at a signalled junction. No injuries reported at the scene. Police attended and issued an incident reference.

Vehicle	2023 Aveline Estate 2.0
Registration	KX26 PLV
Location	Junction of Marsh Lane and Corley Road

SECTION 2 - ADJUSTER INSPECTION

Inspection carried out at the approved repair centre. Damage consistent with the reported mechanism. Rear crossmember deformed; boot floor displaced.

Assessed severity Moderate
Repairable Yes
Estimated days 11

CONTINUATION - NG SCHEDULE, ENTRY 001

Entry 001 recorded 02 March 2026 under reference NG-0001.
Reviewed against the supporting schedule and found consistent with the figures carried forward from the preceding section. No adjustment was required and the balance was released for onward processing in the ordinary course.

Reference	NG-0001
Line amount	2,372.00
Counterparty	Ashfield Holdings LLC
Status	Closed
Approving authority	Regional Controller

Supporting narrative continues below. This section is retained in full for the audit trail and is reproduced without amendment from the originating system of record. Where a figure has been restated, the original is shown in the notes to this section and the restatement is cross-referenced to the approving authority named above, together with the date on which the approval was minuted.

The review procedure applied to this entry followed the standard three-stage process: initial capture by the originating department, independent check by a second reviewer holding no responsibility for the underlying transaction, and final release by an authority at or above the threshold applicable to the line amount. Each stage is evidenced within the system of record and no stage was waived or performed retrospectively in respect of this entry.

Exceptions arising during the period were logged and cleared within the agreed service window. No exception relating to this reference remained open at the reporting date, and none was escalated beyond the divisional level. The ageing profile is unchanged from the prior period and no concentration threshold was breached in respect of the counterparty named above.

Prior period comparative	2,080.00
Movement in the period	242.00
Cumulative to date	6,551.00

Notes to this section: amounts are stated before the elimination of intra-group balances and are presented on a basis consistent with the preceding period. The classification applied reflects the substance of the underlying arrangement and not solely its legal form. Comparatives have been re-presented where necessary to conform to the current period's classification, and the effect of any such re-presentation is disclosed in the reconciliation appended to this section.

CONTINUATION - NG SCHEDULE, ENTRY 002

Entry 002 recorded 03 March 2026 under reference NG-0002.
Reviewed against the supporting schedule and found consistent with the figures carried forward from the preceding section. No adjustment was required and the balance was released for onward processing in the ordinary course.

Reference	NG-0002
Line amount	3,744.00
Counterparty	Brackenmoor Holdings LLC
Status	Closed
Approving authority	Regional Controller

Supporting narrative continues below. This section is retained in full for the audit trail and is reproduced without amendment from the originating system of record. Where a figure has been restated, the original is shown in the notes to this section and the restatement is cross-referenced to the approving authority named above, together with the date on which the approval was minuted.

The review procedure applied to this entry followed the standard three-stage process: initial capture by the originating department, independent check by a second reviewer holding no responsibility for the underlying transaction, and final release by an authority at or above the threshold applicable to the line amount. Each stage is evidenced within the system of record and no stage was waived or performed retrospectively in respect of this entry.

Exceptions arising during the period were logged and cleared within the agreed service window. No exception relating to this reference remained open at the reporting date, and none was escalated beyond the divisional level. The ageing profile is unchanged from the prior period and no concentration threshold was breached in respect of the counterparty named above.

Prior period comparative	3,260.00
Movement in the period	434.00
Cumulative to date	9,102.00

Notes to this section: amounts are stated before the elimination of intra-group balances and are presented on a basis consistent with the preceding period. The classification applied reflects the substance of the underlying arrangement and not solely its legal form. Comparatives have been re-presented where necessary to conform to the current period's classification, and the effect of any such re-presentation is disclosed in the reconciliation appended to this section.

CONTINUATION - NG SCHEDULE, ENTRY 003

Entry 003 recorded 04 March 2026 under reference NG-0003.
Reviewed against the supporting schedule and found consistent with the figures carried forward from the preceding section. No adjustment was required and the balance was released for onward processing in the ordinary course.

Reference	NG-0003
Line amount	5,116.00
Counterparty	Ashfield Holdings LLC
Status	Open
Approving authority	Regional Controller

Supporting narrative continues below. This section is retained in full for the audit trail and is reproduced without amendment from the originating system of record. Where a figure has been restated, the original is shown in the notes to this section and the restatement is cross-referenced to the approving authority named above, together with the date on which the approval was minuted.

The review procedure applied to this entry followed the standard three-stage process: initial capture by the originating department, independent check by a second reviewer holding no responsibility for the underlying transaction, and final release by an authority at or above the threshold applicable to the line amount. Each stage is evidenced within the system of record and no stage was waived or performed retrospectively in respect of this entry.

Exceptions arising during the period were logged and cleared within the agreed service window. No exception relating to this reference remained open at the reporting date, and none was escalated beyond the divisional level. The ageing profile is unchanged from the prior period and no concentration threshold was breached in respect of the counterparty named above.

Prior period comparative	4,440.00
Movement in the period	626.00
Cumulative to date	11,653.00

Notes to this section: amounts are stated before the elimination of intra-group balances and are presented on a basis consistent with the preceding period. The classification applied reflects the substance of the underlying arrangement and not solely its legal form. Comparatives have been re-presented where necessary to conform to the current period's classification, and the effect of any such re-presentation is disclosed in the reconciliation appended to this section.

CONTINUATION - NG SCHEDULE, ENTRY 004

Entry 004 recorded 05 March 2026 under reference NG-0004.
Reviewed against the supporting schedule and found consistent with the figures carried forward from the preceding section. No adjustment was required and the balance was released for onward processing in the ordinary course.

Reference	NG-0004
Line amount	6,488.00
Counterparty	Brackenmoor Holdings LLC
Status	Closed
Approving authority	Divisional Controller

Supporting narrative continues below. This section is retained in full for the audit trail and is reproduced without amendment from the originating system of record. Where a figure has been restated, the original is shown in the notes to this section and the restatement is cross-referenced to the approving authority named above, together with the date on which the approval was minuted.

The review procedure applied to this entry followed the standard three-stage process: initial capture by the originating department, independent check by a second reviewer holding no responsibility for the underlying transaction, and final release by an authority at or above the threshold applicable to the line amount. Each stage is evidenced within the system of record and no stage was waived or performed retrospectively in respect of this entry.

Exceptions arising during the period were logged and cleared within the agreed service window. No exception relating to this reference remained open at the reporting date, and none was escalated beyond the divisional level. The ageing profile is unchanged from the prior period and no concentration threshold was breached in respect of the counterparty named above.

Prior period comparative	5,620.00
Movement in the period	818.00
Cumulative to date	14,204.00

Notes to this section: amounts are stated before the elimination of intra-group balances and are presented on a basis consistent with the preceding period. The classification applied reflects the substance of the underlying arrangement and not solely its legal form. Comparatives have been re-presented where necessary to conform to the current period's classification, and the effect of any such re-presentation is disclosed in the reconciliation appended to this section.

CONTINUATION - NG SCHEDULE, ENTRY 005

Entry 005 recorded 06 March 2026 under reference NG-0005.
Reviewed against the supporting schedule and found consistent with the figures carried forward from the preceding section. No adjustment was required and the balance was released for onward processing in the ordinary course.

Reference	NG-0005
Line amount	7,860.00
Counterparty	Ashfield Holdings LLC
Status	Closed
Approving authority	Regional Controller

Supporting narrative continues below. This section is retained in full for the audit trail and is reproduced without amendment from the originating system of record. Where a figure has been restated, the original is shown in the notes to this section and the restatement is cross-referenced to the approving authority named above, together with the date on which the approval was minuted.

The review procedure applied to this entry followed the standard three-stage process: initial capture by the originating department, independent check by a second reviewer holding no responsibility for the underlying transaction, and final release by an authority at or above the threshold applicable to the line amount. Each stage is evidenced within the system of record and no stage was waived or performed retrospectively in respect of this entry.

Exceptions arising during the period were logged and cleared within the agreed service window. No exception relating to this reference remained open at the reporting date, and none was escalated beyond the divisional level. The ageing profile is unchanged from the prior period and no concentration threshold was breached in respect of the counterparty named above.

Prior period comparative	6,800.00
Movement in the period	1,010.00
Cumulative to date	16,755.00

Notes to this section: amounts are stated before the elimination of intra-group balances and are presented on a basis consistent with the preceding period. The classification applied reflects the substance of the underlying arrangement and not solely its legal form. Comparatives have been re-presented where necessary to conform to the current period's classification, and the effect of any such re-presentation is disclosed in the reconciliation appended to this section.

CONTINUATION - NG SCHEDULE, ENTRY 006

Entry 006 recorded 07 March 2026 under reference NG-0006.
Reviewed against the supporting schedule and found consistent with the figures carried forward from the preceding section. No adjustment was required and the balance was released for onward processing in the ordinary course.

Reference	NG-0006
Line amount	9,232.00
Counterparty	Brackenmoor Holdings LLC
Status	Open
Approving authority	Regional Controller

Supporting narrative continues below. This section is retained in full for the audit trail and is reproduced without amendment from the originating system of record. Where a figure has been restated, the original is shown in the notes to this section and the restatement is cross-referenced to the approving authority named above, together with the date on which the approval was minuted.

The review procedure applied to this entry followed the standard three-stage process: initial capture by the originating department, independent check by a second reviewer holding no responsibility for the underlying transaction, and final release by an authority at or above the threshold applicable to the line amount. Each stage is evidenced within the system of record and no stage was waived or performed retrospectively in respect of this entry.

Exceptions arising during the period were logged and cleared within the agreed service window. No exception relating to this reference remained open at the reporting date, and none was escalated beyond the divisional level. The ageing profile is unchanged from the prior period and no concentration threshold was breached in respect of the counterparty named above.

Prior period comparative	7,980.00
Movement in the period	1,202.00
Cumulative to date	19,306.00

Notes to this section: amounts are stated before the elimination of intra-group balances and are presented on a basis consistent with the preceding period. The classification applied reflects the substance of the underlying arrangement and not solely its legal form. Comparatives have been re-presented where necessary to conform to the current period's classification, and the effect of any such re-presentation is disclosed in the reconciliation appended to this section.

CONTINUATION - NG SCHEDULE, ENTRY 007

Entry 007 recorded 08 March 2026 under reference NG-0007.
Reviewed against the supporting schedule and found consistent with the figures carried forward from the preceding section. No adjustment was required and the balance was released for onward processing in the ordinary course.

Reference	NG-0007
Line amount	10,604.00
Counterparty	Ashfield Holdings LLC
Status	Closed
Approving authority	Regional Controller

Supporting narrative continues below. This section is retained in full for the audit trail and is reproduced without amendment from the originating system of record. Where a figure has been restated, the original is shown in the notes to this section and the restatement is cross-referenced to the approving authority named above, together with the date on which the approval was minuted.

The review procedure applied to this entry followed the standard three-stage process: initial capture by the originating department, independent check by a second reviewer holding no responsibility for the underlying transaction, and final release by an authority at or above the threshold applicable to the line amount. Each stage is evidenced within the system of record and no stage was waived or performed retrospectively in respect of this entry.

Exceptions arising during the period were logged and cleared within the agreed service window. No exception relating to this reference remained open at the reporting date, and none was escalated beyond the divisional level. The ageing profile is unchanged from the prior period and no concentration threshold was breached in respect of the counterparty named above.

Prior period comparative	9,160.00
Movement in the period	1,394.00
Cumulative to date	21,857.00

Notes to this section: amounts are stated before the elimination of intra-group balances and are presented on a basis consistent with the preceding period. The classification applied reflects the substance of the underlying arrangement and not solely its legal form. Comparatives have been re-presented where necessary to conform to the current period's classification, and the effect of any such re-presentation is disclosed in the reconciliation appended to this section.

CONTINUATION - NG SCHEDULE, ENTRY 008

Entry 008 recorded 09 March 2026 under reference NG-0008.
Reviewed against the supporting schedule and found consistent with the figures carried forward from the preceding section. No adjustment was required and the balance was released for onward processing in the ordinary course.

Reference	NG-0008
Line amount	11,976.00
Counterparty	Brackenmoor Holdings LLC
Status	Closed
Approving authority	Divisional Controller

Supporting narrative continues below. This section is retained in full for the audit trail and is reproduced without amendment from the originating system of record. Where a figure has been restated, the original is shown in the notes to this section and the restatement is cross-referenced to the approving authority named above, together with the date on which the approval was minuted.

The review procedure applied to this entry followed the standard three-stage process: initial capture by the originating department, independent check by a second reviewer holding no responsibility for the underlying transaction, and final release by an authority at or above the threshold applicable to the line amount. Each stage is evidenced within the system of record and no stage was waived or performed retrospectively in respect of this entry.

Exceptions arising during the period were logged and cleared within the agreed service window. No exception relating to this reference remained open at the reporting date, and none was escalated beyond the divisional level. The ageing profile is unchanged from the prior period and no concentration threshold was breached in respect of the counterparty named above.

Prior period comparative	10,340.00
Movement in the period	1,586.00
Cumulative to date	24,408.00

Notes to this section: amounts are stated before the elimination of intra-group balances and are presented on a basis consistent with the preceding period. The classification applied reflects the substance of the underlying arrangement and not solely its legal form. Comparatives have been re-presented where necessary to conform to the current period's classification, and the effect of any such re-presentation is disclosed in the reconciliation appended to this section.

CONTINUATION - NG SCHEDULE, ENTRY 009

Entry 009 recorded 10 March 2026 under reference NG-0009.
Reviewed against the supporting schedule and found consistent with the figures carried forward from the preceding section. No adjustment was required and the balance was released for onward processing in the ordinary course.

Reference	NG-0009
Line amount	13,348.00
Counterparty	Ashfield Holdings LLC
Status	Open
Approving authority	Regional Controller

Supporting narrative continues below. This section is retained in full for the audit trail and is reproduced without amendment from the originating system of record. Where a figure has been restated, the original is shown in the notes to this section and the restatement is cross-referenced to the approving authority named above, together with the date on which the approval was minuted.

The review procedure applied to this entry followed the standard three-stage process: initial capture by the originating department, independent check by a second reviewer holding no responsibility for the underlying transaction, and final release by an authority at or above the threshold applicable to the line amount. Each stage is evidenced within the system of record and no stage was waived or performed retrospectively in respect of this entry.

Exceptions arising during the period were logged and cleared within the agreed service window. No exception relating to this reference remained open at the reporting date, and none was escalated beyond the divisional level. The ageing profile is unchanged from the prior period and no concentration threshold was breached in respect of the counterparty named above.

Prior period comparative	11,520.00
Movement in the period	1,778.00
Cumulative to date	26,959.00

Notes to this section: amounts are stated before the elimination of intra-group balances and are presented on a basis consistent with the preceding period. The classification applied reflects the substance of the underlying arrangement and not solely its legal form. Comparatives have been re-presented where necessary to conform to the current period's classification, and the effect of any such re-presentation is disclosed in the reconciliation appended to this section.